NCA Thrive Tutoring Policies

Registration and Payment

- Parent/guardian must sign this form for each child once a year. This Enrollment Form applies to the 2023-24 school year. This form will also be used for summer 2024 tutoring.
- See front side for billing and payment information. (ACH Billing does not apply.) If payment is not through the tuition statement, it should be submitted to Troy Howard or Janet Christy. Do not give payment to the tutor. All checks must be made payable to NCA.
- Please turn in this Enrollment Form to Janet Christy or at the Academy office. This Enrollment Form may also be filled out electronically and emailed to Janet Christy at jchristy@nca.school.
- The Thrive Director will assign the best tutor for your child's needs and schedule the Thrive lessons in coordination with the classroom teacher. Parents will be informed of days and times of the Thrive lessons. Parents will be given the tutor's contact information. All tutoring sessions must be held at NCA. (Virtual lessons may be available if the class or school is on Distance Learning.)

Absences/Cancelled Lessons

- Please let the Thrive tutor know if your child is absent on a Thrive tutoring day.
- If the tutor has to cancel a lesson, he/she will contact you and let you know.
- In the event of inclement weather, if school is cancelled, then all tutoring lessons will be cancelled as well.
- If NCA is on Distance Learning, Thrive Tutoring lessons may continue through video-conference. You will be contacted by your child's tutor.
- Tutoring lessons that are cancelled by the parent, instructor, or cancelled due to inclement weather are not charged to the voucher. The session may be rescheduled, as scheduling allows.
- Tutoring sessions are not transferable. You may not transfer sessions to another child.

Extended Care

- Please let Janet Christy and the tutor know if your child normally attends Extended Care and needs to be signed back into Extended Care.
